

PRESS RELEASE11th November 2024Heptagon Capital Expands Global Presence with New Office in Dubai

Heptagon Capital (“Heptagon”), a London-based asset management firm has announced the opening of a new office in Dubai, UAE. This strategic expansion marks a pivotal step in Heptagon’s commitment to the GCC and the wider MENA region, providing investors with enhanced access to cutting-edge investment solutions and exceptional service.

Located in the heart of the Dubai International Financial Centre (DIFC), the new office serves as a vital addition to the firm’s international footprint, facilitating more direct support for regional clients. The team in Dubai, led by Naz Hedayat, Managing Director at Heptagon, will leverage their extensive expertise and in-depth local market knowledge to better serve Institutional and Family Office investors across the Middle East. The new hub will provide clients with access to the firm’s global network and a diverse range of investment opportunities, spanning traditional and alternative assets.

Commenting on the global expansion, Tarek Mooro, Heptagon’s Managing Partner and CEO, stated: “We are thrilled to establish a base in Dubai, a prominent financial centre and gateway to the Middle East’s rapidly evolving markets. The establishment of the Dubai office is a natural evolution to our multi-decade coverage of the region. It reflects our dedication to strengthening and building deeper relationships with our clients here and providing them with tailored investment opportunities that align with their specific objectives.”
